TO ALL COUNTY CLERKS/REGISTRARS OF VOTERS

Pursuant to Section 3523 of the Elections Code, I hereby certify that on April 18, 1984 the certificates received from the County Clerks or Registrars of Voters by the Secretary of State established that the Initiative Constitutional Amendment, TAXATION, has been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors needed to declare the petition sufficient. The TAXATION. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT is, therefore, qualified for the November 6, 1984 General Election.

TAXATION. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Amends Article XIII A, enacted as Proposition 13 in 1978, adding restrictions on real property taxation, enactment of new tax measures, and charging fees. Prohibits imposition of new taxes based upon real property ownership, sale, or lease. Prohibits increasing other taxes except upon two-thirds vote of Legislature for state taxes and two-thirds vote of electorate for local governments. Restricts imposition of fees exceeding direct costs of services provided. Provides specified refunds including taxes attributable to assessed value inflation adjustments in assessment years 1976-77 through 1978-79. Makes other changes. Operative date for specified provisions is August 15, 1983. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: There will be both one time and ongoing fiscal effects. One time fiscal effects: (1) A potential cost of approximately $1.29 billion to pay property tax refunds. These would be paid by the state ($508 million), local property taxpayers through higher levies for debt service (up to $158 million), and local governments ($624 million). (2) The state will gain about $75 million over a two year period in increased state income tax revenues because the property tax refunds and interest will be taxable income. Ongoing fiscal effects: (1) Annual revenue losses of at least at $41 million to local governments and $25 million to school districts resulting from the provisions regarding inflationary adjustments to assessed valuations. The revenue losses to schools would be offset by comparable increased state funding. (2) Unknown but probably major ongoing gains in state income tax revenues. (3) Unknown annual multimillion dollar costs and revenue losses to state and local governments due to tax rate limitations; assessments practices changes; voting requirements for tax legislation; and the definitions of taxes, fees, and assessments contained in the measure.

Sincerely,

THE AMENDMENT

SECTION 1. Subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Section 1. (a) The maximum amount of any ad valorem tax on real property and any other tax on or based upon the ownership of real property shall not exceed one percent (1%) of the full cash value of such real property. The one percent (1%) tax to be collected by the counties and apportioned according to law to the districts within the counties.

SECTION 2. Subdivision (b) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 1. (b) (1) The limitation provided for in subdivision (a) shall not apply to ad valorem taxes or special assessments to pay the interest and redemption charges on any bonded indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978. There shall be no other exception to the limitation in subdivision (a).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "bonded indebtedness" is limited to indebtedness which was fixed and certain at the time of voter approval and which is evidenced or represented by the issuance of bonds in a specified amount and payable within a specified time.

SECTION 3. Subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (a) The term "full cash value" as used in this article means the county assessor's valuation of real property as shown on the 1975-76 tax bill or, thereafter, the appraised value of real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred after the 1975 assessment. All real property not already assessed up to the 1975-76 full cash value may be reassessed to reflect that valuation. For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) The term "newly constructed" shall not include real property which is reconstructed after a disaster, as declared by the Governor, where the fair market value of that real property, as reconstructed, is comparable to its fair market value prior to the disaster.

(2) The "appraised value" of real property which, since the most recent prior valuation date, has been purchased, newly constructed, or to which a change in ownership has occurred, shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(A) for real property purchased or acquired for consideration after the 1975 assessment, the most recent purchase price, or, for other real property, the assessed value shown on the 1975-76 tax bill (or any value resulting from a subsequent reassessment pursuant to Section 2(a));

(B) the direct cost of any new construction on the real property since the sales or valuation date applicable in (A); and

(C) any applicable annual adjustments or reductions described in Section 2(b)(1).

The most recent purchase price for this purpose shall be the amount of any money transferred plus the fair market value of any other consideration transferred.

(3) When there is a change in ownership as to less than the entire fee interest in directly held real property, only that lesser interest shall be reappraised.

(4) On and after March 1, 1975, for real property taxation purposes, the value standards prescribed by Section 10 of Article 13 of this Constitution and by statutes authorized by Section 9 of Article 13 of this Constitution, shall be deemed to be "full cash value" as that term is used in this Section and any tax levied on real property subject to such value standards shall be governed by this article.

SECTION 4. Subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (b) (1) The full cash value may reflect from year to year an "annual adjustment" for inflation not to exceed 2 percent for any given year, or reduction, as shown in the Consumer Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, under the heading "All Items," or any index substituted by the Department of Labor therefor, for the area under taxing jurisdiction, or may be reduced to reflect substantial damage, destruction or other factors causing a decline in value.

(2) The full cash value shall not include any annual adjustment for the 1976-1977, 1977-1978, and 1978-1979 assessment years. Any assessee whose assessment for any year contained an annual adjustment for the 1976-1977, 1977-1978, or 1978-1979 assessment year shall be entitled to refund of taxes, or a credit against taxes next due if the legislature so provides, in the dollar amount of the additional taxes paid as a result of that annual adjustment, plus interest at the rate of 13 percent from the date of payment.

SECTION 5. Subdivision (e) is added to Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, to read:

Sec. 2. (e) For purposes of subdivision (a) the term "change in ownership" shall not include any intrafamily transfer of real property between an owner thereof and any other person or persons if the person or persons to whom that property is transferred is or are members of the immediate family of that owner. This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree. As used in this subdivision, "members of the immediate family" of the owner means parents, grandparents, stepparents, uncles, aunts, spouse, stepchildren, siblings, and lineal descendants of the owner, or the guardian or trustee for any of the foregoing persons.

SECTION 6. Section 3 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 3. On and after August 15, 1983, any new tax or any change in any tax enacted or authorized by the Legislature which increases the amount of any tax levied upon any taxpayer, including but not limited to the imposition of a new tax, an increase in the rate of a tax, a change in the method of computation of a tax or a change in the taxpayers subject to such tax, may be imposed only by an act passed by not less than two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature, except that, other than the one percent (1%) tax referred to in Section 1(a), no new or increased ad valorem tax on real property or other tax on or based upon the ownership of real property, or sales or transaction tax on the sale or lease of real property, may be imposed.

SECTION 7. Section 4 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is repealed.

SECTION 8. Section 4 is added to Article XIII A of the California Constitution, to read:

Sec. 4. On and after August 15, 1983, any new tax or any change in any tax enacted or authorized by any governmental entity, exclusive of the state, which increases the amount of any tax levied upon any taxpayer, including but not limited to the imposition of a new tax, an increase in the rate of a tax, a change in the method of computation of a tax or a change in the taxpayers subject to such tax, may be imposed only by a measure approved by two-thirds of the qualified electors of the governmental entity voting on the measure at a public election, except that, other than the one percent (1%) tax referred to in Section 1(a), no new or increased ad valorem tax or other tax on or based upon the ownership of real property, or sales or transaction tax on the sale or lease of real property, may be imposed.

SECTION 9. Section 4.5 is added to Article XIII A of the California Constitution, to read:

Sec. 4.5. (a) As used in this article, the term "tax" means any levy or charge, however labeled or structured, including but not limited to any levy for the purpose of paying pension liabilities, made by the state, any local governmental entity, or any agency or instrumentality of either the state or a local governmental entity which does not constitute a fee, an assessment or a fine, as defined in subdivision (b).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Fee," which shall not include any amount to pay pension liabilities, means any charge by the state, any local governmental entity, or any agency or instrumentality of either the state or a local governmental entity which is imposed upon persons or property for either of the following purposes:

(A) To pay for the direct costs of the services provided to or direct benefits conferred upon the particular persons or property subject to the charge.

(B) To pay for the direct costs of a regulatory program under which the person or property subject to the charge is regulated.

(2) "Assessment" means a charge which is levied upon particular real property within a limited area for the payment of the cost of a local capital improvement to land which directly and specially benefits said particular real property, and which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) It is levied exclusively on land.

(B) It is based wholly on and limited in amount to direct and special benefits to the land upon which it is levied.

(C) It creates no personal liability for the person whose land is assessed.

(D) It is limited both as to time and locality by the duration and scope of application of the capital improvement.

(3) "Fine" means an amount paid to a governmental entity as a pecuniary punishment for engaging in unlawful activity.

(4) The excess of any purported fee imposed over the direct costs of the service or direct benefit conferred or provided to fee payers or the direct costs of the regulatory program for which the fee is charged, shall constitute a tax. The excess of any purported assessment levied over the costs of the capital improvement for which the assessment is levied, shall constitute a tax. If any portion of a purported fee or purported assessment constitutes a tax and such tax has not been validly imposed, any person who paid the fee or assessment shall be entitled to receive from the entity imposing the fee or assessment a refund of that portion constituting a tax, plus 13 percent interest from the date of payment.

(5) On and after August 15, 1983, any new fee or any increase in any fee exceeding the increase if any in the cost of living during the preceding twelve-month period as shown in the Consumer Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, under the heading "All Items," or any index substituted by the Department of Labor therefor, for the area subject to the fee, may be imposed by any governmental entity other than the state only by a measure approved by two-thirds of the qualified electors of that governmental entity voting on the measure at a public election, or if enacted or authorized by the Legislature only by an act passed by not less than two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature.

SECTION 10. Section 5 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 5. Except for refunds of taxes required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 2, and refunds of any fees, taxes or assessments collected in violation of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2, Section 3, Section 4 and paragraphs (4) and (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 4.5, no refund for any tax year prior to the tax year beginning July 1, 1985 shall be made as the result of the adoption of the constitutional amendment hereby revising this Section.

SECTION 11. Section 6 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution is amended to read:

Sec. 6. If any section, subdivision, paragraph, part, clause, or phrase of this article, or any amendment or revision of this article, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remaining sections, subdivisions, paragraphs, parts, clauses or phrases shall not be affected but shall remain in full force and effect.

REVISED TAX REFORM INITIATIVE BEGINS CIRCULATION, REPORTS EU

SACRAMENTO -- Tax Crusader Howard Jarvis has begun circulating a revised version of an initiative petition to amend the constitutional provisions enacted by passage of Prop. 13 of 1978, Secretary of State March Fong Eu announced today (Oct. 24).

If adopted by the voters, the measure would place additional restrictions on real property taxation, prohibiting imposition of any new tax based on ownership, sale, or lease of real property. It would further prohibit enactment of any measures to increase any tax except by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature for statewide taxes, or by a two-thirds vote of the electorate for local taxes. In addition, it would provide refunds of real property tax assessments in the amount to the annual inflation adjustment for the assessment years 1975-76, 1976-77, 1977-78 "plus interest at the rate of 13 percent from the date of payment."

Titled simply "Taxation", the measure is an initiative constitutional amendment which requires 630,136 valid signatures of registered voters to qualify for a place on the ballot. The 150-day deadline for submission of signatures is March 19, 1984; however, in order to qualify for the June 5 primary election ballot, petitions should be submitted by Nov. 29, 1983 to allow sufficient time for signature verification. Proponent Jarvis can be reached at (213) 658-5151.

This petition is an amended version of a petition which began circulating in August. Mr. Jarvis has indicated that the earlier petition is no longer in circulation.

A copy of the initiative, its title and summary, and circulation calendar is attached.
